Pride of The Steakhouse

Uruguay is located in the southeastern part of South America. This country contains about 4 times more cattle than people. With its wide-stretched nature and fields, the inhabitants of Uruguay have a deep understanding on how to raise cattle. One last remarkable fact: Uruguay is the only country in the world that has 100% traceable livestock!

While being a descendant of the carefully nurtured Black Angus breed, the 'Umi' breed has been raised with even more strictness and precision this meat is becoming increasingly popular amongst the star chefs from all over the world. Umi is being referred as the 'Art Of Beef', because it simply looks and tastes like a piece of art. With a beautiful marbling score of 5+, a 200 days grain fed diet and a hormone free breeding process, this meat is sincerely as good as it gets.
